

I strongly oppose the weakening of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. Before this act was in effect, we would receive between 10 and 15 unsolicited phone calls a day. Since then, that number has been reduced to 1 or 2. It's an invasion of our privacy and ultimately a quality of life issue!